

INVITATION

CYBER-TERRORISM AND CYBER-WARFARE: EU PERSPECTIVES & IMPLICATIONS FOR AUSTRALIA

There are growing concerns about the evolving threat of offensive cyber activities, ranging from hacking to on-line propaganda of extremist ideologies and illegal trade and fundraising, malicious cyber-attacks, to systematic coordinated offensive operations targeting government and business sites, as well as critical elements of physical infrastructure.

This special expert panel will address the challenge of cyber terrorism as a strategic threat to Australia, Europe and broader international community, offer insights on EU views and perspectives on this threat, and discuss potential implications for Australian stakeholders.

FRIDAY 28 OCTOBER 2016

12:30pm - 2:00pm

RMIT, CITY CAMPUS

Council Chamber
Building 1, level 2R
124 La Trobe Street
Melbourne VIC 3000

FREE EVENT

RSVP

HTTP://CYBERSECURITY28.EVENTBRITE.COM.AU

Dr Alexey D. Muraviev is Head of Department of Social Sciences and Security Studies at Curtin University, Perth, Western Australia. He is a Coordinator of the International Relations and National Security programs and the founder and Director of the Strategic Flashlight forum on national security and strategy at Curtin. He has published widely on matters of national and international security. He advises members of state and federal government on foreign policy and national security matters.

Dr Bruno Scholl has been Counsellor and Head of Political, Press & information Section of the European External Action Service at the Delegation of the European Union to Australia in Canberra since 2013. Prior to this he worked as European Correspondent in the Policy Coordination Division of the EEAS in Brussels, and as a Guest Professor at the College of Europe, in the Department of EU International in Relations and Diplomacy in Bruges.

Allan Briggs, owner of Briggs Communications, spent 16 years as an operational police officer, ten years with the Media and Corporate Communications Department at Victoria Police as Sergeant. Allan gained experience in a raft of crisis incidents ranging from gangland shootings, searches, protests and plane crashes. Allan founded Briggs Communications in 2010. He has trained and tested hundreds of major corporations in emergency management. He is also a guest lecturer at RMIT