

Modiin Maccabim Reut The First Israeli Learning City

The city is blessed with more than 62 voluntary organizations, operating for the wellbeing of the local community.

Anabe, recreational park, includes an open amphitheater for performances seating up to 1000 spectators

10 youth movements are active in the city.
Over 30% of Modi'in's children and teenagers, are members – one of the highest rates in Israel.

Our city was declared a Learning City in 2008, Joining the UIL and PASCAL networks

Modiin Maccabim Reut The First Israeli Learning City

Approximately 10,000 (12%) citizens of the city population are new immigrants

In 2015
Modiin Maccabim Reut received the National Award for Social Responsibility

More than 50% of the Municipality's budget is devoted to Education *over 27,500 students Study in the city.

- 40 schools including:
 - 25 elementary schools
 - 13 high schools
 - a special education school
 - a school for gifted students.

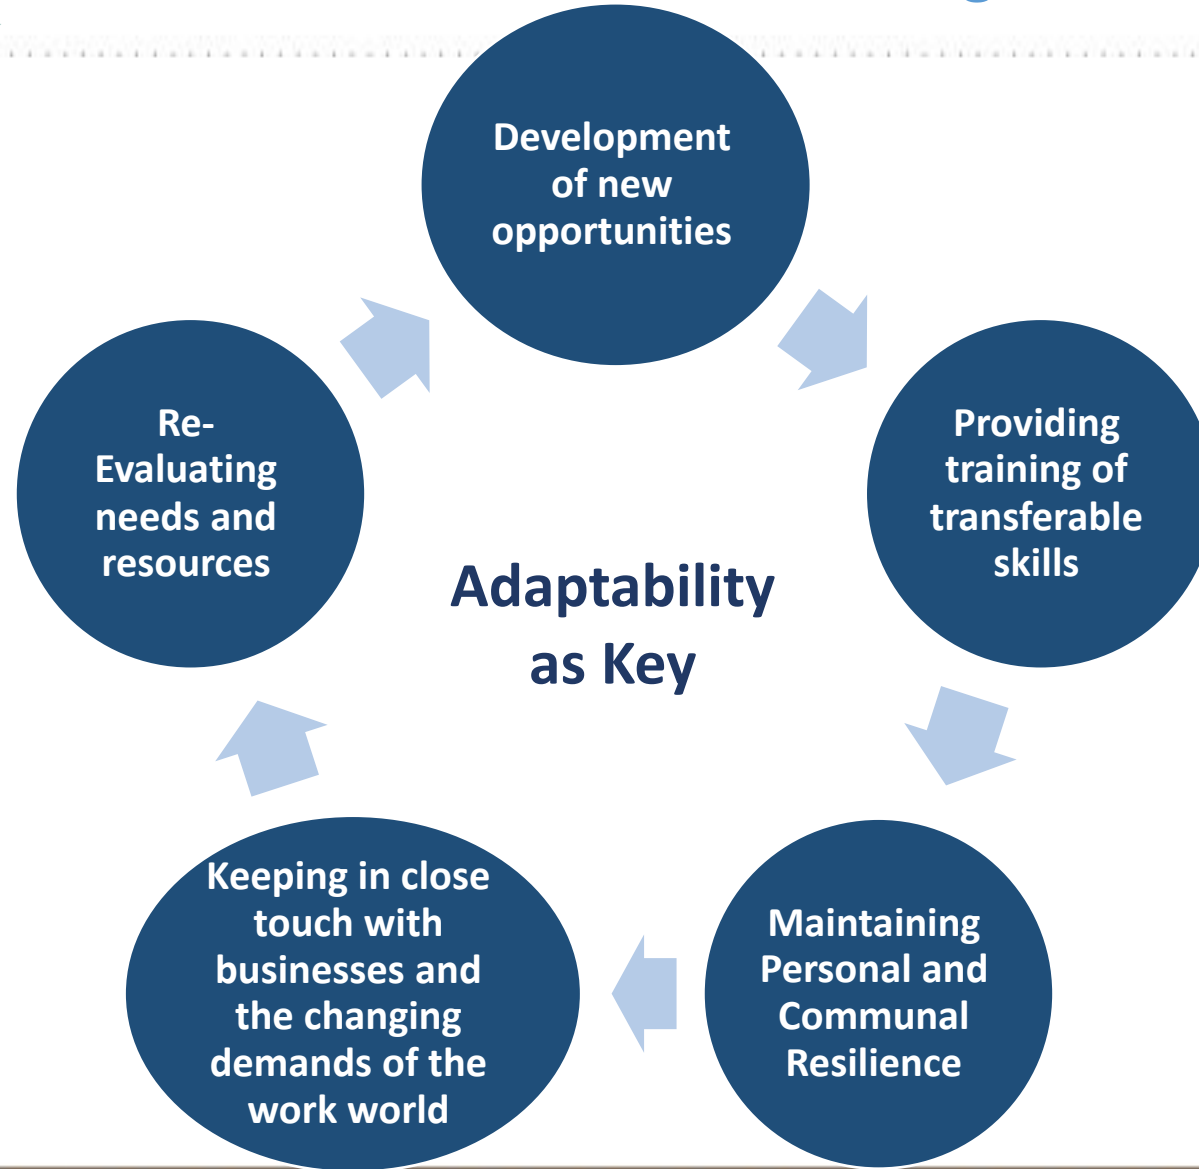

City's Population- 92,406.
The city's socio – economic Classification is 8.

More than 65%
of the citizens are university graduates

Major green areas were incorporated into the city's layout and comprise 50% of the area within the city limits.

The Average age in the city is 32 years old.

Vision for change "A new future of work for wellbeing"

How our City works with higher Education

Our Multi-Disciplinary Center, run by the Municipality, offers a variety of Adult Education programs, and includes a branch of Open University, offering BA and MA degrees

We work in cooperation with leading Universities in Israel, and have established a consortium for International collaboration

We are currently developing a Learning City Internship for organizational Psychology students from the IDC

