

International Workshop

Culture, Religion and Urban Environment in Late Antiquity and Beyond

Date: Thursday, 7 August 2014, and Friday, 8 August 2014

Venue: Classics, University of Glasgow, 65 Oakfield Avenue, Murray Room

Thursday, 7 August 2014

- 9.30–10.00 Jan R. Stenger (Glasgow)
Introduction
- 10.00–10.50 Michael Osborne (Glasgow)
Learning cities
- 11.20–12.10 Nigel Sprigings (Glasgow)
The impact of culture on urban development
- 14.30–15.20 Claudia Tiersch (HU Berlin)
A rhetor and his city: Gaza in the letters of Procopius
- 15.20–16.10 Fotini Hadjittofi (Lisbon)
Town and Gown in the Orations of Choricus
- 16.40–17.30 David Westberg (Uppsala)
Virtues old and new: Choricus on courage
- 18.00 Martin Hose (Munich)
Public lecture: The importance of the Greek polis for Greek literature

Friday, 8 August 2014

- 9.00–9.50 Jan R. Stenger (Glasgow)
Cultural leadership in Gaza
- 9.50–10.40 Therese Fuhrer (Munich)
Rhetorics of theology: religious debates in late antique Carthage
- 11.10–12.00 Christa Gray (Glasgow)
Jerome, Quintilian, and Little Paula: ideal education and ideology
- 12.00–12.50 Vicky Gunn (Glasgow)
Contemporary Christian pluralism and civic higher education

This event is part of the research project 'Gaza: Tradition and Leadership in a Learning City', funded by the RSE (<http://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/humanities/staff/janstenger/#tabs=5>).

Contact: Prof Jan R. Stenger, Classics, School of Humanities, jan.stenger@glasgow.ac.uk